

GRADE CROSSING ACCIDENT.

One Dead and Other Fatally or Seriously Injured.

Cleveland, August 8.—Reports today from various hospitals to which the victims of last night's grade crossing accident were taken showed that only one death had occurred, but six of the badly injured will probably die.

V. V. Lillie, the man employed by the Pennsylvania Company company admits that the gates were not closed. He is held on the charge of manslaughter. Henry Laughlin and young daughter were killed outright while his wife and two other children were badly injured, is today reported to be insane.

Mrs. Martin is not expected to live the day out.

Late last night Martin went to the hospital where the physicians were about to operate upon his daughter. The crazed man struck one of the physicians a terrific blow in the face and knocked him down.

Frenchmen Guests of King Edward.

Cowles, Isle of Wight, August 8.—The French fleet, consisting of eight battleships, cruisers and torpedo boat destroyers under the command of Vice Admiral Caillard, dropped anchor in the Solent today to spend a week as guests of King Edward and the British navy. Heavy downpours of rain throughout the morning drenched the decorations ashore and aloft and shrouded in a mist the great gathering of yachts and British warships collected to welcome the visitors.

Train Kills Cotton Choppers.

Hillsboro, Tex., August 7.—A fast Cotton Belt passenger train, somewhat belated, crashed into a party of negro cotton choppers about a mile and a half east of town shortly after midnight, killing Ray Edwards and his wife and badly mauling Henry Thompson and his wife. A child of Edwards was run over by the train, but was unhurt. The negroes, tried of chopping cotton, had camped on the track, thinking the train had passed, and were asleep when the struck.

Negro Killed at Camp Meeting.

Gainesville, Ga., August 8.—One negro is reported killed and several wounded as a result of a riot at a negro campmeeting at Klondike, a station on the Gainesville Midland railway, 11 miles below Gainesville. Sheriff Crow was summoned and left for the scene at once. As the place cannot be reached by telephone, no particulars can be learned.

Alabamian Fatally Shoots Brother.

Birmingham, Ala., August 8.—Claud Tetherow shot and fatally injured his brother, W. B. Tetherow, at Pinckney City, near Birmingham. Four shots were fired, each of which took effect. The man who did the shooting is confined in jail here, and refuses to say what caused the shooting.

Killed by Electric Cable.

Chester, S. C., August 8.—John Weir, a young man, has been instantly killed here by an electric cable used on the city's electric light plant. Weir, a Latin-American scientist, was lights. The cable was charged by some defect in the insulation of the electric wires. As it was raining at the time the shock was much heavier. The deceased was 24 years of age and a single man.

Pleased with United States.

New York, August 8.—Dr. Carlos Pellegrini, former president, returned Sunday from Europe and the United States, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres. He was escorted home from the dock by a great crowd which he addressed. He spoke enthusiastically about the United States, and expressed himself as grateful for the reception he met from President Roosevelt and others.

Ten Thousand People Homeless.

Bombay, August 8.—The monsoon this year, has generally speaking, proved disappointing and as a consequence there is much anxiety. In the province of Punjab the crops in the unirrigated lands are already suffering. There has been an abnormal deluge in the province of Gujarat doing considerable damage and rendering ten thousand persons homeless.

To Attend Reciprocity Conference.

New York, August 7.—At a meeting of the board of governors of the New York Produce Exchange yesterday, a resolution was adopted empowering the president to appoint a committee of five to attend the national reciprocity conference at Chicago on Aug. 25 and 27.

A SYMBOL OF PEACE.

The Dove Has Had This Distinction in All Ages Since the Flood.

The dove has been pictured as the bird of peace by writers and artists in all the ages since the time of the flood, for the dove has figured in the symbolism of many races and of countless generations. According to the Century Dictionary, the dove is the bird of peace because of the incident recorded in the eighth chapter of Genesis: "And it came to pass at the end of forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made, and he sent forth a raven which went to and fro until the waters were dried up from off the earth. And he sent forth a dove from him to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground, but the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him in the ark. And he stayed yet another seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark, and the dove came to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off; so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth."

Proper names derived from the dove have always been used in the orient as descriptive of loveliness and were especially applied to beautiful women. The dove was woven into the pagan worship of ancient northern Europe, and it has a great place in early Christian life and symbolism. From immemorial time the dove has always been a type of innocence to the Jews. Elsewhere it has been associated since the Olympian age with the higher idea of Venus as the symbol of natural human affection—the love that goes with purity and simplicity of heart. It had a part in marriage scenes and was naturally introduced by early Christian painters into pictures of the Madonna and child and of female saints. These qualities of gentleness and affection combined with their mournful notes made doves equally appropriate to moods of sorrow, and they were a part of the furniture of most pagan funerals. This passed on into Christian usage and their likenesses, generally combined with the olive branch, were carved on the tombs in the catacombs beneath Rome and elsewhere, emblematic of eternal peace.

In the Sporting Magazine for 1825 this appeared: "Pigeons are rarely seen at the table of the Russians, who entertain a superstitious veneration for these birds because the Holy Ghost assumed the form of a dove." Commenting on this, a writer says, "This custom of the abstinence from the flesh of the dove is far older than Christianity, being indeed in all probability connected with the same class of feelings as those which marked it out as the Aryan death bird."

Sir Richard F. Burton remarks: "Ever since Noah's dove every religion seems to consider the pigeon as the sacred bird. For example, every mosque swarms with pigeons, and the same exist in most Italian market places. The Hindoo pundits and the old Assyrian empire also have them."

One Mystery Solved.

Boarding house habitues who have repeatedly complained of the dark, cheerless coloring of the wall paper in their rooms may find something to interest them in the information recently elicited by a curious clerk in a department store.

"I should like to know," said the clerk—"in fact, I have long wanted to know—why it is that you ladies who manage boarding houses always choose such dark paper."

"Well," said the prospective purchaser, "if that is the only thing you want to know you might just as well have got wise long ago. We like dark paper because with that on the walls the halls the boarders use to tack up their pictures don't leave such ghastly scars."—New York Press.

Expired.

The defendant, who was held on the charge of keeping a dog without a license, repeatedly tried to interrupt the evidence, but was hushed each time by the court. Finally the clerk turned to him.

"Do you wish the court to understand," he asked, "that you refuse to renew your dog license?"

"Yes, but—"

"We want no 'buts.' You must renew your license or be fined. You know it expired last month."

"Yes, but so did the dog."—Harper's Weekly.

Economy.

The following letter was received from his sister by a New Yorker who was away from home on a visit:

I am sending by mail a parcel containing the golf club you wanted. As the brass buttons are heavy I have cut them off to save postage. Your loving sister,

P. S.—You will find the buttons in the right hand pocket of the coat.

Would Leave It.

"I insist upon your leaving the house," she said angrily.

"Certainly," replied the tenant blandly. "I have no intention of taking it with me."—From
